Greetings Fellow Friends!

First and foremost, I would like to thank my predecessor Jan Howard for her many years of service. As a director and president of the Friends of the Youngstown Free Library, her dedication and commitment have made it a better place. Jan's tireless efforts have ensured our Library's continued vitality, as well as its ability to enrich generations to come. She was (and will continue to be) an integral part of our Library, and a beloved member of the Youngstown community.

Almost nine years ago, upon assignment to the Niagara Air Reserve Station, my wife and I were searching for a new home in Niagara County. We were looking for a quiet, cozy community to raise our family – two daughters, with a baby on the way. Youngstown stood out as a small tight-knit place, and we could envision ourselves being a part of this town. Time went on, our kids grew, and so did our affection for our small Library. Last year, as my Air Force career was drawing to a close, I began seeking a new way to continue serving my community. I wanted to be more involved so I joined the Friends of the Youngstown Free Library Board of Directors. Now I find myself the incoming president, and I hope to serve as well as all those who have come before me. In addition, I want to help our library remain active, relevant, and able to meet the challenges that await us in the years to come.

One of the simplest ways to show your support for our Library is to become a member of the Friends. Memberships are a vital part of our fundraising efforts as they provide funding for improved Library services, programming and materials, subscriptions and facility needs. Please continue to be part of our membership, and spread the word to your family and friends. Ask them to consider joining the Friends of the Youngstown Free Library to show their support, and come check out our Library!

President - Friends of the Youngstown Free Library

A note from Board of Trustees President

The Magic

G'day Friends,

Forgive me if I repeat myself, but for an embarrassing number of years I had little real idea of what it takes to make a community such as ours work. For it to function; for it to be vibrant and thrumming with the activity that make it a place people want to visit and in which to live.

Everything from the celebratory outside events we squeeze into our sunny months to the dozens upon dozens of daily / weekly / monthly / annual events at our Library and other village and town institutions.

The good stuff – the magic – just kind of appeared. At least, that's how it seemed until I woke up one day and found myself on the Board of Trustees and immersed right in the guts of things.

[OK – perhaps there was a little wilful ignorance going on. Because you know that once you're aware of what it takes to make good things happen, you kind of develop a sense of responsibility it's difficult to ignore, right?]

But as it is in OZ, so it is here in Youngstown. You pull back the curtain, and the Wizard's magic is revealed to be nothing more than the result of people pulling the levers and getting stuff done, quite literally behind the scenes.

The magic doesn't happen by accident.

But I don't think that's a bad thing. Seeing how the magic is done, and being a part of it, doesn't diminish the results. If anything, I'm a fan of seeing how things are done. You appreciate things all the more if you know the story behind them.

Some great new fundraising ideas percolated to the surface last year and we could use some volunteers to help keep them going. There are important steps between a successful first run of an idea, and actually making it a sustained part of what we must continue to do to help the Library meet its financial responsibilities. So, if you've ever thought to yourself "I really should get over there and get involved in one of these fund-raisers" – or something like that – then your chance has come at last. We could use some Friends to take on the responsibility of keeping these lucrative and beneficial-to-the-community ideas going. If that's you, please contact either Keith or myself, and we'll point you in the right direction.

We have a busy year ahead of us. However, if we can get several people in and willing to roll up their sleeves to get it done, it'll be smooth.

Cheers all,

Sean

PS – Here's an idea... if the idea of taking a new responsibility seems a bit daunting, consider teaming with a friend or two and sharing the effort. What's that line from scripture? "Though one may be overpowered by another, two can withstand him. And a threefold cord is not quickly broken."

2019 – 2020 Library Fund Drive

Thank you to everyone who has donated so generously to our 2019-2020 Fund Drive. At the Year's End, we were able to record an amazing $20,692 in donations received from you, our loyal community.

Your donations are vitally important to the Library's financial health, and your efforts are greatly appreciated. Even with your record-breaking level of donations, the Town of Porter's continued generous support of our Library (with a check for over $80,000) and wonderful monetary support from the Friends, in order to continue keeping the Library's doors open 40 hours a week and to offer the level of programming you have told the Library staff that you want, once again the Board of Trustees has very reluctantly had to adopt a deficit budget. This means we need to dip into our rainy-day monies in order to maintain and improve the Library's services to you.

So please continue supporting the Library, tell your friends and their children about the wonderful resources it offers and please keep walking through those doors and telling our staff what an excellent job they are doing!

Thank you again for your donations and the Fund Drive is still open, if you would like to contribute.

A note from our Library Director

Valentine's Day Candy Land for Families

For the first weekend of February, the Red Brick Gym was transformed. No longer a gym for basketball games, it had become a life-sized Candy Land board game overnight! On the floor, a path of colorful squares serpentineed its way around the entire gym. Rainbow lanterns and candy strings were hung overhead. Giant gummy bears, gumdrops, a gingerbread house, and Princess Lolly decorated this life-size game board. Along the path, treat stations offered families the chance to do Valentine's Day themed science projects.

Families who attended were able to immerse themselves (literally!) in a Candy Land board game with the added benefit of STEM learning opportunities. This program was an incredible success, with over 125 attendees!

A program this large could not have happened without the incredible support of two groups: the Friends of the Library and a group of enthusiastic volunteers. The Friends of the Library generously donated $500 to support this program. This paid for game board pieces, decorations, science materials, and candy for the children.

Beyond financial support, Candy Land also required a dedicated team of volunteers. Dozens of community members of all ages volunteered their weekend, their energy, and their talents to make Candy Land a success.

Thank you to the following volunteer program organizers who worked tirelessly and attended to every detail:

Emma and Keith Hartloff and Hartloff children and Bea

Lauren and Nick Morse and Ryland and Phineas

Thank you to the following volunteers who set up the game, ran the event, and cleaned up afterwards:

Kevin Cassick, Barb Chassar, Eran Colbus, Ashley Hess, Diane Hudson

Heather Rogers, Laura and Sean Scarisbrick and Scarisbrick children,

Jean and Bill Siddall, Karran Swayze, Devon Tower and Tower children.

Also, to everyone who baked goodies!

Thank you to everyone who made this program a success! Friends, staff, and volunteers: your support and hard work allows this little library to thrive in its community, and I am grateful to you all.

Yours truly,

Sonora R. Miller

Library Director
